ST15-15	Breakthrough of Courage
		When my Digimon with [Greymon] in its name isn't affected by my opponent's Digimon's effects from this card's [Main] effect, can it be blocked by an opponent's Digimon? 1	Yes, it can be blocked. <Blocker> is an effect that allows the Digimon with the effect to block, so it isn't affected by "isn't affected by the effects of your opponent's Digimon" effects.
ST15-16	Trident Arm
		Can I choose an opponent's Digimon with a "this Digimon can't attack" effect as the target for "[Start of Your Main Phase] Attack with this Digimon" when I activate this card's [Main] effect? 1	Yes, you can. However, in such cases, the attack isn't performed due to the "this Digimon can't attack" effect.
		What happens if this card's effect activates twice and 2 of my opponent's Digimon gain the "[Start of Your Main Phase] Attack with this Digimon" effect? 2	At the start of your opponent's main phase, the effects gained from this card's effect are triggered at the same time, and your opponent determines which one activates first. After effects such as [When Attacking] have activated, and before the counter timing occurs, it is time to activate the effect of the 2nd Digimon that was pending activation. However, since the 1st Digimon is already attacking, the effect ends without an attack made. As a result, only the Digimon whose effect was activated first can attack.
		Can I choose an opponent's Digimon with an "[Opponent's Turn] This Digimon isn't affected by your opponent's effects" effect as the target for "[Start of Your Main Phase] Attack with this Digimon" when I activate this card's [Main] effect? 3	Yes, you can. In such cases, as soon as it becomes your opponent's turn, the target opposing Digimon loses the "this Digimon isn't affected by your opponent's effects" effect, and the attack occurs at the start of the main phase by this card's effect.
